

Social and Personal.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD HARRIS BENSON, whose wedding was celebrated in Richmond on June 22, returned Monday night from their bridal tour in the North. They spent some time on Lake George, later going to New York City and Atlantic City. On their return trip they stopped over at Fort Myer to visit the Brander. Mr. and Mrs. Benson are now at home on South First Street. Miss Barker, to come to Virginia.

Miss Betty Burwell Booker calls today for America on the Adriatic, of the White Star Line. She will visit her sister at Saratoga Lake before coming to Virginia to be with her mother, Mrs. Benson, at the University of Virginia.

Reception at Country Club.
The club and extension committee of the Young Woman's Christian Association will hold a reception in the Country Club, 514 Fifth Avenue, Chestnut Hill, on Friday evening, July 9, from 6 to 8 o'clock. The affair is to be quite informal in the form of a shirtwaist lawn supper, and young women are invited to come directly from their places of business, to meet Mrs. J. M. Ogden, domestic science secretary, and Miss Sadie Lyle, secretary in training.

Miss Haley reached Richmond last Thursday, and is a resident of the club. She will assist in plans for vacation and social affairs, and is already quite popular among association members. Miss Sallie B. Fleet is mentioned at the club.

Mr. Ogden has this afternoon to take charge of the new plans for the dining-room at the association building, 709 East Franklin Street. Guests who will attend the lawn supper are to take the Highland Park car and get off at Willow Street. There will be tennis, croquet and lawn games.

Mrs. S. H. Hawes is chairman of the reception committee, and assisting her will be Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, Mrs. B. Cary Nelson, Mrs. Charles P. Lee, Mrs. J. H. Smith-Hobbs.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley Robertson, in Woodland Heights, was beautifully decorated on yesterday for their daughter's wedding, when Miss Helen Lytle Robertson and Sydney Stratton Smith were quietly married at 10 A. M. by Rev. Benjamin Dennis.

Midshipman Robert Stanley Robertson, Jr., who leaves soon to fill an appointment in the Philippines, was the bride's best man, and Miss Annie Holmes Robertson, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor.

She was also attended by four bridesmaids in dainty dresses of white chiffon, with pink sashes and sheath bouquets of white sweetpeas. They were Miss Ellen Harriet Smith, Miss Sarah Brownlie French, Miss Marion Wilson Robertson and Miss Helen Bland Bate, and entered the parlor, which were prettily arranged in evergreens and pink and white flowers, just before the bride and her father.

Miss Annie Robertson wore a beautiful gown of chiffon, and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink roses.

The bride was very handsome in her wedding gown of white crepe, lace-trimmed, and a white Gainsborough hat. She carried a shower of gardenias and sweetpeas.

Among the wedding guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. Gray McCloud, Mrs. Guy Dunlop, of Atlanta; Misses Anderson and Grier, of Petersburg; Miss Marion Robertson, of Portsmouth, and Miss Margaret Smith, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are now traveling in the North.
